

The RITE Program

Employment Services for Survivors of Domestic and Sexual Violence

Reaching Independence Through Employment

The RITE Program for Survivors of Violence provides flexible and holistic employment services to support participants to gain the confidence, skills, training, and experience needed to find and sustain meaningful employment. At no cost to the participant, the program provides a supportive environment for learning and skill development.

What this Program offers You:

- Individual Employment Counselling
- Group based Workshop Series for 2 weeks
- Support accessing community and/or Government services
- Life, Employability and Essential Skills Training
- Career Decision Making
- Vocational Assessments
- Supportive Job Search
- Up to 8 sessions of Personal Counselling with Registered Counsellor or Psychologist
- Funding for Occupational Skills Training, Certificates and/or upgrading
- Paid Work Experience
- Transportation Supports
- Job Start Supports such as work wear, tools and/or uniforms

Who is Eligible?

- ✓ Individuals who self-identify as a Survivor of Domestic Violence and/or Sexual Violence, regardless if reported
- ✓ Unemployed or precariously employed individuals
- ✓ Those currently living in British Columbia
- ✓ Canadians, permanent residents or protected persons legally entitled to work in Canada

For more information or to register email: info@triangleresources.com or visit: www.triangleresources.com

Abbotsford: 101 – 2296 McCallum Road, Abbotsford, V2S 3P4 | 604-859-0033

Maple Ridge: 101 – 22575 Lougheed Hwy, Maple Ridge, V2X 2V2 | 604-476-1202

Chilliwack (by appointment): 8850 Young Road, Chilliwack, V2P 4P5 | 604-792-8000

Mission (by appointment): 33163 2nd Ave Mission, V2V 6T8 | 604-814-0052

Funding provided by the Government of Canada through the Canada-British Columbia Workforce Development Agreement.